A quick heads-up makes the gift feel intentional and gives you a reason to connect.

I love finding ways to support our local business community, so I've partnered with a company called LoLo - Locals Supporting Locals - to start sending you a gift (on me!) at a local business every month.

TEMPLATE FOR EMAIL, TEXT, OR PHONE CALL

Hi <name>,

I love finding ways to support our local business community, so I've partnered with a company called LoLo - Locals Supporting Locals - to start sending you a gift (on me!) at a local business every month.

Keep an eye out for an email and text from me with your first gift soon (it might filter to your promotions folder). You can also opt in to text messages. When you're ready to redeem, just take your phone to the featured merchant and pull up the link to view the gift and use it when it's time to pay or check out.

I hope you'll use these gifts to explore new places around town and help me support our local community! Let me know if you have any questions about this.

Enjoy!
